FBI Never Interested 'Cover Up,' Curry Says

The head of the Dallas FBI office denied Thursday that the bureau ever made public its [illegible] letter from Police Chief Jesse E. Curry denying that the FBI ever asked Curry to "cover up" the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas prior to the assassination.

Assistant-in-charge J. Gordon Shanklin said the denial was made in reply to a letter Shanklin wrote to Curry Tuesday, asking that the matter be clarified.

Curry's reply, as released by Shanklin, said:

"[illegible] your letter concerning the Dallas Federal Bureau of Investigation office had made to 'cover up' the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

"This reply is in reply to your letter of Oct. 15, 1964."

In his letter to Curry, Shanklin wrote:

"Reference is made to a letter which you are quoted by news services as having written the President's counsel clarifying this matter. [illegible] did not have the conversation as Mrs. Hill contends and, [illegible] did not ask Chief Curry to 'cover up' the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. I will appreciate [illegible] this retraction be furnished me."
